RAIC pleased to announce new Fellows for 2008

OTTAWA March 18, 2008 – The Royal Architectural Institute of Canada is pleased to announce Fellows and Honorary Fellows for 2008.

Honorary Fellows

Bob Berkebile, Hon. FRAIC, FAIA, Principal with BNIM Architects and a leading authority in the field of sustainable design, is the founding chairman of the AIA's National Committee on the Environment and was instrumental in the formation of the US Green Building Council. He is highly regarded by fellow professionals for creating beautiful environments that are restorative and pedagogical. He has conducted numerous sustainable design charrettes and workshops for the White House, the Department of Defense, the Department of Energy, to name just a few.

Mr. Berkebile will be speaking Thursday June 26 during the RAIC Fellows Convocation being held at the Christ Church Cathedral in Fredericton NB.

Herménégilde Chiasson, Hon. FIRAC, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, has lent his support to New Brunswick's Architects and the profession. In 2005 the Lieutenant Governor's Awards of Excellence in Architecture in New Brunswick were created to recognize excellence in the work of resident practices and to promote the value of architecture in building the province's communities. He has also sponsored an architecture lecture series in partnership with the University of New Brunswick. His Honour will be speaking Friday June 27 during the evening Gala dinner.

The RAIC College of Fellows formally recognizes members and distinguished laypersons who have made outstanding contributions to the profession. Fellowship is an honour conferred on members singled out for their contribution to research, scholarship, public service or professional standing to the good of architecture in Canada, or elsewhere.

Fellows will be inducted at a Convocation during this year's 2008 RAIC Festival of Architecture being held jointly with the Architects Association of New Brunswick (AANB) in Fredericton, New Brunswick from June 25 to 28, 2008. For more details see www.raic.org.

The Royal Architectural Institute of Canada is a voluntary national association established in 1907 as the voice for architecture and its practice in Canada. Representing almost 3,700 architects, the RAIC is the leading voice of architecture in Canada whose mission is:

- To affirm that architecture matters;
- To celebrate the richness and diversity of architecture in Canada; and,
- To support architects in achieving excellence.
