RAIC recognizes excellence among students

OTTAWA July 10, 2006 – The Royal Architectural Institute of Canada recognizes excellence among students at Canada's University Schools of Architecture each year in two ways – the RAIC Student Medal and the RAIC Honour Roll.

The RAIC Student Medal is awarded in each School of Architecture in Canada to students achieving the highest level of academic excellence when graduating from a professional degree program. The RAIC Honour Roll recognizes architecture students in these schools who achieve high academic standings in the top 10 per cent of their graduating class.

"I want to personally congratulate each of the students for their vision and passion - this is an extraordinary time to be a talented young Architect in Canada," said RAIC President Vivian Manasc, FRAIC.
